MILROY WORKED BY BOLD FORGER

Professional Left With Horse and Buggy and Fifty Bright, Unspent Dollars.

TELLS STORY WITH A MORAL

Says he Found it Impossible to Sell Groceries as People Had Been Buncoed Before.

Milroy was stirred today the result of the bold operations of a professional bogus check operator, who left there yesterday morning with fifty hard earned Rush county dollars jingling in his pockets.

Two or three days ago a stranger dropped into Milroy and put up at the Tompkins house. He said he was representing the Bigler Grocery Co.
of Springfield, Ill., and that he intended working out of Milroy. Yesterday morning he went to the Milroy bank to cash a fifty dollar check, but they turned him down. He returned to the hotel and had John Smith, the proprietor, stand good for him. He gave his name as E. P. Harmon on the check.

Within a few minutes after he got the money, Harmon left town in a livery rig, going north. Smith learned that the fellow had hired two rigs, one at either of the two livery stables, in order to make a sure getaway. Smith grew suspicious and at once telegraphed to the Springfield firm. They answered that no such person was employed by them. The officers of the neighboring cities and towns were notified at once, but no clue was found to Harmon until late last night, when his rig was discovered in a livery stable at St. Paul. At St. Paul the ticket agent said a man answering the description of Harmon bought a ticket to Greensburg, but another man saw him get on a car bound for Shelbyville.

This morning Smith received a letter from Harmon which was sent from Shelbyville at 6:30 o'clock last night. It was the same old line of dope that professional crooks give out to get a good start on the officers. He said he would return to Milroy in a few days and would make the amount of the check good. He said that he found the people had been swindled so much by Dayton and other grocery firms that he had found it impossible to sell any goods and was therefore driven to resort to the method he employed to get enough money to get out of the place and into another locality where he could earn something.

A traveling man at Milroy said today that he knew the fellow and that his name was John Henry of Oxford, Ohio. He said he bore a very bad name there. He is described as being about forty-five years of age, well dressed and groomed, a fluent talker, has two prominent front gold teeth and has a scar on the right side of his face.

Deputy Prosecutor Wallace Morgan went to Milroy today to assist in corraling the fugitive.

CHANGE IN A BUSINESS FIRM

Hill Dry Goods Store Changes Hands
at Carthage.

The Carthage Citizen says: A deal was consummated Wednesday by which the well known dry goods firm of R. H. Hill & Co. disposed of their large stock of merchandise to H. R.
Hall of Marion. The trade came as quite a surprise to all but a few.

ENGINE IS NOT A VEHICLE

Traction Machine May Plow Ahead
on the Good Roads.

A justice of the peace in Wells county decided Tuesday that a traction engine is not a vehicle and therefore three men charged with hauling a heavy vehicle over a road not in fit condition were allowed to go free. The statute was found to apply to vehicles, but the defense contended that the engine could not be classed as such and the justice sustained the contention.

SPLENDID RECORD IN BIG REVIVAL

Rushville Man is Surprising Friends
—Successful as the Great Evangelists.

SEVENTY JOIN IN TWO WEEKS

The series of revival meetings will be continued over Sunday at the Christian church, says the Greenfield Tribune. It was the intention to close with the service Wednesday night but on account of the deep interest that is being manifested at each service, the evangelists Corter and Cole decided to remain for the remainder of the week at the solicitation of the church.

A large crowd was present again last night and the interest was deep and sincere. One man united with the church and many more are expected to make the choice for right before the Sunday night services are over and the revival closes. The total number of accessions to date are seventy which is surely a most splendid record for two weeks.

COMMISSIONERS POSTPONE ACTION

The Orange-Glenwood Macadamized
Road Contract No Let on Account of Improper Advertising

THE FALMOUTH ROAD PETITION

At the joint session of the county commissioners of Rush and Fayette counties, held here yesterday in regard to the letting the contract for the proposed Orange-Glenwood macadamized road, it was decided to postpone awarding the contract on account of irregularity in the legal advertising.

The two boards also considered the petition filed for the construction of a county line road, from Falmouth north, three miles in length.

OPERATION SUCCESSFUL.

Greensburg News: Mayor Thomson and Dr. Riley went to Rushville this morning, where at Dr. Sexton's hospital, Mrs. Thomson was operated on this morning. Dr. Riley assisted in the operation. Mr. Thomson returned home this afternoon and brought the good news that the operation was very successful and everything pointed to a speedy recovery.

NATION TO PAY THEM A TRIBUTE

Rush County Especially Interested in Big Reception Planned For Wright Brothers.

DAYTON WILL BE THE SCENE

Governor Will Send Two Regiments of Soldiers—Rush County Relatives Going.

Dayton is preparing for the event of her life next month when the world famous aeroplanists, the Wright brothers will return from their trip abroad and Rush county is to share in the glory of the occasion. As boys, the Wright brothers often visited here and their father, Bishop Milton Wright, was here recently, the guest of relatives and friends. A brother of the Bishop formerly preached in Center township, Rush county.

Mrs. Cora Dillon of North Main street, and Miss Grace Frazier of Center township, cousins of the Wright brothers, have received an invitation from Bishop Wright, urging that they come to Dayton on the occasion of the great demonstration for his sons. They have accepted the invitation and will be guests at the Wright home on that day. In a letter sent here the Bishop said the boys and their sister, Miss Katherine, sailed from South Hampton on May 5, according to a cable he received from them and would arrive in Dayton about May 12.

June the 17th and 18th will be the biggest days that Dayton ever saw.
In addition to the great preparations being made by the Commercial club of that city, Governor Harmon is anxious that the State shall do honor to her distinguished sons and has ordered two regiments of soldiers sent to Dayton. The Wright brothers will publicly receive three sets of gold medals, one from the government at Washington, the gift of congress and senate; another from the Ohio State department, and still another set from the city of Dayton.

The Wright brothers were born and raised in Henry county, just over the Rush county line. A dispatch to one of the metropolitan papers today said in part:

"It is hoped to make this the largest and most widely advertised event Dayton or any city of its size in the world has ever undertaken."

TO PREACH TONIGHT ON "THE LAST SON"

Protracted Meetings at Missionary Baptist Church Continue to Draw Large Crowds.

NO SERVICES SATURDAY NIGHT

The series of protracted meetings being held at the Missionary Baptist church continues to draw large crowds each evening. Evangelist Jones will preach tonight on the subject, "The Last Son." This is the third of the series of the three great parables in the fifteenth chapter of St. Luke.

There will be no services on Saturday evening. The evangelist will go to his home in Indianapolis in the morning and will return Sunday morning with his wife. They will sing at both services Sunday.

The sound of a bell carries better under water than through the air.

MINISTER DIED ALONE IN A YARD

Corpse of Rev. George Witters Was Found by Man Who Lived
With Him.

VICTIM OF HEART DISEASE

Complained Few Hours Before That he Felt Dizzy and Walked Along Creek Bank.

George W. Witters, a well known farmer of Anderson township was found dead in his yard late Wednesday afternoon by Newton Downs, who lived in the same house with the deceased. Death was due to heart failure. Coroner Coleman was called and held an inquest.

Of the life and death of Mr. Witters, the Milroy Press says today:
"The body was still warm when found, so that death had resulted only a short time before. He had been feeling about as usual, walking down to the creek after dinner, but said that his head was dizzy."

"Mr. Witters was 79 years old, born and always lived in this county.
He is survived by one son, Philander Witters, with whom he made his home most of the time, but recently had been staying on his own place, with Newt. Downs.

"He was a member of the New Light Christian church, in which church he had been a minister for many years, preaching at many different churches over the State.

"The funeral was held Friday at 1:30 p. m. at the late residence, conducted by Rev. D. O. Coy of Lebanon; burial in the Overleese cemetery."

WHO IS TO BLAME FOR THE SHORTAGE?

Number of School Children is Found to be on the Decrease in Rushville.

AUTOMATIC SYSTEM A FACTOR

With the clean sweep the stork has in Rushville, the sky line not being punctured by sky scrapers, it is really disgraceful the way he has acted during the past year. Race suicides are probably as much to blame as the stork. Just think of Rushville falling off sixty-eight school children in one year. Going back, when we should be pressing forward.

The automatic telephone system might have had something to do with the decrease, as it is often impossible to get a party after an electrical storm, and the doctors may have missed many orders in this way. In the recapitulation the following results are given by the census taker, L. E. Wallace: Total number of children, 1186; white males, 556;
white females, 582; colored males, 26, colored females, 22. Last spring the number of school children was found to be 1254.

HEARD AT ANDERSON.

Anderson Herald: "I'm for dry and it's not because I want to see the saloons smashed," was the assertion of a father of twins and three other children. "You see," he continued,
"I have had a big job nursing babies and I want 'em dry instead of—" but the street corner crowd caught his point and "I don't blame you then," followed.

DIED AT HOME OF HER SON

Remains of Mrs. Mary Woodard
Were Taken to Shelbyville
Today.

Mrs. Marshall G. Tindall was called to Rush county Wednesday night, says the Shelbyville Liberal, to take charge of the remains of Mrs. Mary Woodard, a former resident of this city, who died Wednesday at the home of her son, Charles Johnson, five miles northeast of Arlington.
The funeral services and burial will take place in Shelbyville, and the body will be brought here Thursday to the home of Mrs. Parthena Jones.

WORKED YEARS FOR FIFTY CENTS A DAY

But J. B. Schrichte Loaned Money to Brother Who Made Princely
Salary of $1.25.

IS GOING BACK TO GERMANY

J. B. Schrichte, the veteran monument dealer of Rushville was in Carthage Thursday looking after business, and gave the Citizen office a call, says the Carthage Citizen. Mr.
Schrichte came from Germany to the United States when a young man 18 years old. He worked for 50 cents per day for three years, and his brother who was earning $1.25 per day often asked him for a loan. Mr.
Schrichte has been in the monument business at Rush county's capital for fifty years during which time he has built up a large patronage. He has never re-visited his home in the old country, but anticipates that pleasure in the course of a few weeks.

MAKES GOOD PLACE FOR GEORGE BOSLEY

Million Dollar Concern Goes Into Receiver's Hands and Bosley Gets a Good Berth.

TO BE ASSISTANT SECRETARY

George Bosley, formerly of Rushville and Milroy, who has been connected with the big cement plant at Bedford for several years, has been signally honored with a position created by reason of the concern going into the hands of a receiver. Mr.
Bosley will officiate in the receivership as assistant secretary, quite an important place when it is taken into consideration that the firm, the United States Cement company, has property valued at over a million dollars. The company will reorganize and will begin operation as soon as possible. The receivership will likely only be temporary, as the company's assets exceed their liabilities by over three hundred thousand dollars.

Abe Martin Says

Abe Martin says today: "Tilford Moots' wife gits in a fight with him ever mornin' so he wont come home t' dinner. Miss Tawney Apple will probably not go t' Niagara Falls this summer, as she's havin' a ready-made dress altered."

The poultry prices in India have doubled within a few years.

SUNDAY WILL BE MOTHER'S DAY

White Carnation Will be Worn in Honor of the Saints of Earth.

SHOULD BE OBSERVED BY ALL

Tribut Should be Paid to Them in the Flesh or Spirit if Departed.

No movement set on foot in recent years deserves heartier support than that for the establishment of a National Mothers' Day.

The day set apart as Mother's Day by those who have inaugurated this movement is the second Sunday in May—next Sunday. Let us unite in doing all we can to make it a real Mother's Day, by especially honoring our mothers; in the flesh those of us who are so fortunate as to have our mothers with us; in the spirit, those who are not so fortunate.

If away from her, write a good,
loving letter, or telephone, or telegraph to the best mother who ever lived—your mother. Send her some flowers, an appropriate present, go and spend the day with her, or in some other way make her heart glad.
Show her that you appreciate her,
and that you give her credit for a large part of your success. Let us acknowledge to the world the great debt we owe them, by wearing, every one of us, boy and girl, man and woman, on Mother's Day, a white carnation—the flower chosen as the symbol and emblem of motherhood.

A Colt With Five Feet Born on Farm of Vern Lewis, South of New Salem Last Night.

TWO FREAKS BORN RECENTLY

A colt with five feet was born on the farm of Vern Lewis, a short distance south of New Salem last night.
The extra foot protrudes just above the lower joint on the right front leg.
The little animal seems to be very healthy and gives promise of being a fine horse. This is the second freak animal born in the county within the last few weeks.

MUSHROOM DAYS HERE ONCE MORE

Lovers of the Succulent Fungus are Busily Engaged Scouring
the Woods.

TWO GROWTHS VERY SIMILAR

Mushroom days are here and lovers of the succulent fungus are alive to the fact that an early morning trip into the woods or even the field that has decaying trees will get them many of the "mushrooms" that are good to eat in many ways besides as a smother for a porter-house steak.
There is danger in the hunt, as much as in east Africa. Beware of the deadly toad stool. It belongs to the same botanical family—maybe in its larger growth it has acquired the poison; both plants and men are prone to lose health by abnormal growth.

Those who know them can distinguish easily between the toad stool and the mushroom yet yearly there are serious sicknesses and even deaths from mistakes made by picking the deadly for the edible agaricus campestres, the botanical family name of mushroom and toad stool.

ECZEMA

Don't Close the Pores of the Skin and Drive it In.

Persons afflicted with Eczema, Scrofula, Psoriasis Ulcers, Pimples, etc., frequently have recourse to strong astringent external remedies to dry up and close the pores of the skin in order to get temporary relief, forgetting in their anxiety, that by so doing they are forcing the poisonous germs back into the blood to reassert itself, a month later, in the old disease area, or on some other part of the body, in a more malignant form. How much better to help the blood throw off the impurities which cause these diseases, and get permanent relief. Blood is the most important constituent of the human body, and when impure is the underlying cause of most of our ailments, particularly skin diseases. Dr. Taylor's treatment aims to purify the blood as well as treat the skin. Guaranteed to cure. Send to our office, 1330 Arch St., Philadelphia, for booklet. Sold by F. B. JOHNSON & CO.,

WARNED AGAINST USE BAD SAUSAGE

State Board of Health Sends Out a Warning to Meat Dealers—

Many Use "Filler."

PACKAGES SHOULD BE MARKED

An order from the State Board of Health is to be sent to meat dealers throughout the State warning them against the use of preservatives in the sale of sausage. Samples of this product, received and analyzed by H. E. Barnard, State food and drug commissioner show that some "filler" has been used by the manufacturers of sausage and hamburger steak and that the packages in which the meat is contained are not marked as required by law.

The law requires all packages of sausage or hamburger containing the "filler" referred to in the order of the Health Board to be plainly marked and all meat dealers who violate the order in this regard will be prosecuted.

"Sausage and other meat products (except meat loaf) the order says, 'which contain 'binder,' 'filler' or any form of cereal product can not legally be sold unless the package is plainly marked in black Gothic letters at least one-fourth of an inch in height."

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

Indigestion Causes it—Mi-o-na Will Cure it.

If you have indigestion, you don't get all the nutriment out of your food that you should.

Your worn out stomach passes the food on without extracting enough nutritious substance to supply the blood and nerves.

And if the nerves are not supplied with nourishment, they begin to rebel. They kick up a great disturbance. They make you irritable and cranky, you worry about trifles and you cannot sleep soundly at night, you have bad dreams, and you get up tired in the morning.

Try Mi-o-na tablets, the money back cure. Mi-o-na will cure your nervousness by driving out the cause. Mi-o-na will give you relief the first hour. It will cure acute cases in a few days, and chronic cases in a few weeks.

Belching of gas, heartburn, sour taste of food, waterbrash, foul breath and other dyspeptic symptoms vanish before the mighty power of Mi-o-na.

Try Mi-o-na T. B. Johnson & Co. sells it and will refund your money if it doesn't cure, and only 50 cents a large box.

ALUMNI HAD A BIG EVENING

At First Annual Banquet in Milroy

Ninety-Three Persons Were Present.

TOAST FOLLOWED BANQUET

Old Classmates Met and Talked Over

the Many Things of ester-

Years.

The Milroy high school Alumni held its first annual banquet at the school auditorium Wednesday night. The meeting was a complete success. Ninety-three were present; and of this number fifty became members of the society.

Graduates were present from far and near. Those that had graduated when the first high school was organized by J. L. Shauck, mingled with the members of each succeeding graduating class, and each vied with the other in friendliness and hospitality.

The order of the evening was an informal gathering in the auditorium, where old classmates met and talked over the days of long ago. This was followed with a five-course supper, during which merriment ran high. The music was furnished by a three-piece orchestra from Greensburg.

Toasts followed the banquet; the following responded, each being eloquently introduced by toastmaster, Dr. Hume, J. L. Shauck, Arie Taylor, Bass Wilson, Pearl Booth, Catherine Barton and Claude R. Crane.

NOW THE TIME TO SPRAY FRUIT TREES

Do Not Put It Off Until Conditions

Are Such That It Will Do

No Good.

WHEN PETALS FALL OFF.

The time for spraying fruit trees is near at hand. The first spraying should be immediately after the falling of the petals from the blossoms and while the little apple is standing straight out. The object is to get some of the poison into the blossom of the young apple so that when the larva attempts to eat its way into the blossom end it will be killed.

Mr. Bryan filled three columns of his paper in trying to prove that Secretary of War Dickinson is not a Democrat. Now let Mr. Bryan devote several pages to defining a Democrat.

The secret to long life is to keep active as long as life lasts. Mr. Flagler, who is building a railroad over the Keys in Florida to make quicker connection with Cuba, is eighty-one years old. When asked why he did not cease work at his age, he replied that it was interest in his new railroad enterprise that kept him alive.

Fifteen years ago the estimate of 400,000 tons as the output of reading matter in the United States was noted with astonishment. The increase has gone steadily on and the output is now estimated at 1,500,000 tons, which includes 23,000 newspapers with an aggregate of 12,000,000,000 circulation. The educative possibilities of this immense distribution of reading material are incomprehensible.

The dairy and food inspector of the State of Missouri is going about among the farmers and dairymen with a portable laboratory. He comes unannounced and takes a sample of the stock for sale and makes analysis, and if adulterations are shown, the law fixes the punishment. The inspector calculates that the very knowledge that he is abroad with no fixed date for his appearance anywhere may tend to promote a better quality of food and milk.

SWAN SONG HAS DEATH GURGLE

Fol-de-rol and Drivel From Many Pointed Pen Does Not Make a Puncture.

BIG JOKE OF NEWSPAPERDOM

is Found in Local Publication Soon to Hear the Doleful Strains of a Requiem.

Oh! harken to the swan song of the Daily Democrat. How sweetly, yet dolefully it sounds. 'Tis like the soft, low buzzing of a gnat, and with a death gurgle in their throat, they would try and sting the foot of the elephant. (Glossary note—We are the elephant.) Someone told us about it, otherwise we would not know it. Poor, forlorn, hopeful, disconsolate stockholders—those few who want the paper subsidized and kept going that they may wield their axes and line up for an office or some other plum sauce, at the expense of the many stockholders—they have our condolence and sympathy. They pray in one breath and curse in another, with long-winded silly, driveling statements, but do they deny that some of the stockholders are anxious of selling the plant and want the company thrown into the hands of a receiver? No, they avoid that—the only question at issue—and not even graceful in getting around it. Is that a fair way of dealing with the stockholders who put their good money into the concern? Why don't the auditing committee, that was appointed to go over the books of the company make a report and a correct one to the stockholders? Shall the Daily Republican be obliged to do that. We can get the report. In all probability we will publish it as a news story.

There is a shortage in the accounts, is there not? Is that a legitimate news story? Then we shall get the amount and the name of the party or parties said to be short. We would rather not do this, but if the company does not go into the hands of a receiver soon, and the case is not threshed out in court, where it should be, in a business-like way, free from gossiping stories and where malice cannot enter into the controversy, the full report of the shortage will be given, for readers of the Daily Republican have our promise of "all the news all the time."

In the meantime, know they that the cheap, little attacks, dealing in personalities are being ground. Nobody reads them, and regrets the time spent if they do. Newspaper men in this part of Indiana are laughing at them, at their inane and foolhardy stories and are asking "What in the world is the matter with those bucolic numskulls? Who are they? And why don't someone tell them to hold their peace until they have something to say?" Fact is they are in a hole—and are there to stay, like all other organizations of a like character who expect to bleed a lot of stockholders for personal political gain. If we have anything more to say, it will be in a news way, publishing stories of the legal proceedings. Until then—

The Pleasant Ridge M. E. Sunday school will observe next Sunday as Parents' and Adults' Day. The minister, S. A. AMUSEMENTS

"Vampires of the Coast" and "An Unusual Elopement" are the titles of the subjects to be shown at the New Palace theater tonight. The first picture is interesting, showing the manner in which pirates lure vessels from their course and rob them. The second subject is a scream. Here's Where the Fun Comes In Mike had only recently been made foreman of the section gang, but he knew the respect due his rank. "Finnegan," he said to an argumentative assistant, "I'll have something out of you but silence—and mighty little of that."

Elmer Bassett was calling Morris-town by phone the other day, says the Shelbyville News. Once, twice, thrice he tried and each time two women held the wire with an animated (?) conversation about how long "Susie's dress should be cut." "I thought I would make it just to her shoe tops, wouldn't you?" "Oh, I don't know! I guess that's about where the girls wear their dress now," was the reply.

"But if she grows any more we can let the hem out, you know. I think the shoe top would be about the right length."

And thus for at least half an hour according to Mr. Bassett's reckoning the conversation continued.

Exasperated by the delay in reaching Morristown he exclaimed:

"Cut it out. If I had a needle and thread I could have had the dress fixed twenty minutes ago."

"Who's that?" came so quickly over the wire the phone tinger.

But Mr. Bassett lost his nerve. He waited until next day to call Morristown.

Notice.

Water rentals are due at the City Treasurer's office by May 1st. Sewer assessment, street improvement and sidewalk assessments are due by May 3d. M. V. SPIVEY, City Treasurer.

For Woman's Eye.

The basket-shaped hat is giving way to a much prettier shape, greatly admired in the East. It is very large and decidedly turned up on the one side. Flowers are to be used in great profusion throughout the summer.

Long sleeves will be continued in favor throughout the season by the best-dressed women.

A revival of the plaited skirt will be seen in the fall. The plain, hipless coat still reigns.

The Spanish flounce is familiar again with the spring gown.

Tussor and Shantung will be as popular as at former times.

Smart Tips For Men

In shirts there are many novelty fabrics in plain and corded weaves. Coat style and box plaited, with attached cuffs, predominate.

In the four-in-hands small knots are still in favor in the tying. The designs run mostly to stripes of bold colorings.

In soft hats low crowns are ordained. There are some tans being worn, but blacks are principally favored.

Silk shirts, with bosoms and cuffs of different pattern from the body cloth are being shown.

Gloves should match or harmonize in contrast with the suit or overgarment in the color scheme.

Dr. Pierce's Health Talks

The miracle of motherhood is often overshadowed by the misery of motherhood. The great functional changes which are incident to child bearing leave their mark for life on many a mother. Some women offer up their lives as a sacrifice on the altar of motherhood. A far greater number live on in ceaseless misery. Their strength fails, their beauty fades, they have no ambition and no enjoyment in life. To every woman

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Offers escape from the pains and perils of motherhood. Taken during the period of waiting and anticipation this medicine strengthens the body, nourishes the nerves, and prepares the whole womanly system for the coming of baby. It also insures an abundant supply of nourishment for the child.

The mind feels bright and buoyant. There is no anxiety, no dread, but in its place a happy anticipation of the baby's coming, which counts for the future happiness of the child unborn. The use of "Favorite Prescription" makes the baby's advent easy, and gives abundant vitality to nursing mothers.

MRS. STRINGER HELD INSANE

Court Orders Acquittal of Alleged Blackmailer.

ON GROUNDS OF INSANITY

Upon the Completion of the Evidence

In the Case Against Mrs. Zella Stringer Charged With Attempted

Blackmail, the Court Ordered the Woman's Acquittal and Named a Commission in Lunacy Which at Once Declared the Woman to Be a Person of Unsound Mind.

Washington, Ind., May 7.—The case of the state against Mrs. Zella Stringer for attempted blackmailing, came to a sudden halt with the completion of the evidence of the defense, when without protest, Judge Houghton ordered the foreman of the jury to sign the following verdict: "We, the jury, find the defendant not guilty wholly upon the grounds of insanity," and thus ended the case in so far as the criminal part was concerned.

Judge Houghton at once appointed a lunacy commission, which reported that Mrs. Stringer is of unsound mind and she now will be placed in the Southern Indiana Hospital for the Insane.

All during the trial an effort was made to bring out the person or persons who were implicated with the woman in the blackmail scheme, and while this was done to a marked degree, the authorities assert that not enough was brought out to justify an arrest at this time.

The Stringer woman, when asked by her relatives to tell who were with her in the plot, would always reply that she was afraid they would kill her if she did. It is thought that after she has been away from local surroundings for a time that she may implicate others.

The BLACK BAG

By Louis Joseph Vance

Copyright, 1908, by the Bobbs-Merrill Co.

The admonition was all but superfluous. Kirkwood was unable for the time being to do aught else than resign his fate into another's guidance. Once in the cab he slipped insensibly into a nap and slept soundly on, as reckless of the cab's swift pace and continuous bouncing as of the sunlight glaring full in his tired young face.

He may have slept twenty minutes. He awoke faint with drowsiness, tingling from head to toe from fatigue and in distress of a queer qualm in the pit of his stomach, to find the hand at rest and the driver on the street shaking his fare with kindly determination. "Oh, a' right," he assented surlily and by sheer force of will made himself climb out to the sidewalk, where, having rubbed his eyes, stretched enormously and yawned discourteously in the face of the east end, he was once more himself and a hundred times refreshed into the bargain. Contentedly he counted 3 shillings into the cabby's palm, the fare named being one and six.

"The shilling over and above the tip is for finding me the waterman and boat," he stipulated.

"Right-o! You'll mind the 'orse a minute, sir?"

Kirkwood nodded. The man touched his hat and disappeared inexplicably. Kirkwood, needlessly attaching himself to the reins near the animal's head, pried his sense of observation open and became alive to the fact that he stood in a quarter of London as strange to him as had been Bermondsey wall.

To this day he cannot put a name to it. He surmises that it was Wapping. His cabby popped hurriedly out of the entrance to a tenement, a dull visaged, broad shouldered waterman ambling more slowly after.

"Nevvy of mine, sir," announced the cabby, "and a fust rye waterman. Knows the river like a book, he do."

The nephew touched his forehead sheepishly.

"Thank you," said Kirkwood, and, turning to the man, "Your boat?"

He asked, with the brevity of weariness.

"This wye, sir."

At his guide's heels Kirkwood threaded the crowd and then descended to a floating stage to which a heavy rowboat lay moored. In the latter a second waterman was seated, balling out bulge with a rusty can.

"'Ere we are, sir," said the cabman's nephew, pausing at the head of the steps. "Now, where's it to be?"

The American explained tersely that he had a message to deliver to a friend who had shipped aboard a vessel known as the Alethea, scheduled to sail at flood tide, further than which deponent averred naught.

The waterman scratched his head. "A 'ard job, sir. Not knowin' wot kind of a boat she ar mekles it 'arder." He waited hopefully.

"Ten shillings," volunteered Kirkwood promptly—"10 shillings if you get me aboard her before she weighs anchor, 15 if I keep you out more than an hour and still you put me aboard. After that we'll make other terms."

The man promptly turned his back to hail his mate. "'Arf a quid, Bob, if we puts this gent aboard a vessel name o' Allytheer afore she syles at turn o' tide."

In the boat the man with the balling can turned up an impassive countenance. "Coom down." He clinched the bargain and set about shoving the sweeps.

Bows swinging downstream, the boat shot out from the shore.

"How's the tide?" demanded Kirkwood, his impatience growing.

"On th' turn, sir," he was told.

For a long moment broadside to the current, the boat responded to the sturdy pulling of the port sweeps. Another moment and it was in full swing, the watermen bending lustily to their task. Ship after ship was passed, and in keen anxiety lest he should overlook the right one Kirkwood searched their bows and sterns for names, which in more than one case proved hardly legible.

The Alethea was not of their number.

In the course of some ten minutes the watermen drove the boat sharply inshore, bringing her up alongside another floating stage, in the shadow of another tenement, both so like those from which they had embarked that Kirkwood would have been unable to distinguish one from another.

In the bows old Bob lifted up a stentorian voice, summoning one William.

In answer to the third ear racking hall a man, clothed simply in dirty shirt and disreputable trousers, showed himself in the doorway above, rubbing the sleep out of a red, bloated countenance with a mighty and grimy fist.

"'Ello," he said surlily. "Wot's th' row?"

"'Oo," interrogated old Bob, holding the boat steady by grasping the stage. "Was th' party wot engyged yer last night, Bill?"

"Party name o' Allytheer," growled the drowsy one. "W'y?"

"Party 'ere's lookin' for 'im. Where will I find this Allytheer?"

"Best look sharp 'r yer won't find

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Ills of Rushville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of urine poison circulated in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ill. Rushville cures are the proof.

Mrs. Ulysses Beaver, 120 Fifth Street, Rushville, Ind., says: "I feel that it is my duty to advise parents having children afflicted with kidney complaint to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. One of my children was troubled in this way and had but little control over the kidney secretions at night. Hearing of similar cases where Doan's Kidney Pills had effected cures, I procured a supply of the remedy at F. B. Johnson & Co.'s drug store. It brought prompt relief and convinced me of its great merit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Melburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

"im," retorted the one above. "'E was at anchor off Bow creek last night." Kirkwood's heart leaped in hope. "What sort of vessel was she?" he asked, half rising in his eagerness.

"Brigantine, sir."

And again the boat was flying down in midstream, the leaden water, shot with gold of the morning sun, parting sullenly beneath its bows. Hugging the marshy shore, they rounded the Blackwall point, the boatmen pulling hard. Young William looked to Kirkwood, caught his eye and nodded.

"Here?"

Kirkwood rose, balancing himself against the leap and sway of the boat.

"Sumwhere's 'long o' 'ere."

From right to left his eager glance swept the river's widening reach. Vessels were there in abundance, but no brigantine, no sailing vessel of any type.

The young man's lips checked a cry that was half a sob of bitter disappointment. He sat down suddenly. "She's gone!" he cried in a hollow gasp.

The tired boatmen eased upon their oars, and old Bob stood up in the bows, scanning the riverscape with keen eyes shielded by a level palm. The boat drifted listlessly with the current.

Old Bob panted, "Dawn't see—nawthin'—o' 'er." He resumed his seat.

"There's no hope, I suppose?"

The elder waterman shook his head.

"'Carn't say. Might be round—nex' bend—might be—passin' Purfleet. Point is—me an' young Wilyum 'ere—'carn't do no more'n we 'as. We be wore out."

"Yes," Kirkwood assented, disconsolate. "You've certainly earned your pay." Then hope revived. He was very young in heart, you know. "Can't you suggest something? I've got to catch that ship!"

Old Bob wagged his head in slow negation; young William lifted his.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offsets real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES

Text of the Lesson, Acts xlii, 13-52. Memory Verses, 38, 39—Golden Text Acts xlii, 49—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.]

Crossing from Cyprus to the mainland, they landed at Perga, where they do not seem to have preached the gospel at this time, but they did on their return journey (xiv, 25). For some reason John Mark left them here and returned to Jerusalem, and Paul felt it so much that when they were about to start on their second tour it caused a separation between Paul and Barnabas. But the time came when Paul wrote to Timothy, "Take Mark and bring him with thee, for he is profitable to me for the ministry" (xv, 37-40; II Tim., iv, 11). Time alters the appearance of many things, and if we were more slow to condemn and more full of the love that beareth all things, thinketh no evil and is not provoked, how much better it would be! Paul and Barnabas are found next at Antioch, in Pisidia, and, as was evidently their custom, they went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day and sat quietly among the people during the reading of the law and the prophets but no doubt very prayerfully. Being then invited to speak, Paul gladly gave the address.

In five sentences (verses 17-21) Paul summarizes the books of Exodus Numbers, Joshua, Judges and Samuel reaching to David, the second king over all Israel, of whom God said, "I have found David a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfill all my will" (verse 22). Then he passed right on to Jesus, the son of David as Israel's Saviour, according to I Sam. vii, 12, 13; I Chron. xvii, 11-14; Ps. cxxiii, 11; Isa. ix, 6, 7; Jer. xxxiii, 5, 6; Luke i, 32, 33. With a word concerning John the Baptist as the herald of Christ (Isa. xl, 3; Mal. iii, 1), he declared that Jesus risen from the dead was a fulfillment of Ps. ii, 7; Isa. lv, 3; Ps. xvi, 10, and that through Him were now proclaimed to all men and there assembled the forgiveness of sins and a justification from all things which the law of Moses could never give (verses 38, 39). With another quotation from Isa. xxix, 13, 14, and Hab. i, 5, he urges them to beware of despising such glad tidings.

How wondrous is this grace which is so fully stated in II Cor. viii, 9, as to the reason and manifestation of it and so simply in Rom. iii, 24; v, 1, as to the benefits we receive, "Being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus." "Being justified by faith, we have peace with God through (our Lord Jesus Christ)." Or, again, in a passage which I love specially to ponder, "To the praise of the glory of His grace, wherein He hath made us accepted in the Beloved, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace" (Eph. i, 6, 7). The gospel which puts any doubts of ours between us and the redemption which is in Christ Jesus is not the gospel of the grace of God. On the next Sabbath day at Antioch nearly the whole city came to hear the word of God. The Jews were filled with envy when they saw the multitudes and began to contradict and blaspheme and speak against the things which Paul taught, whereupon the Lord's messengers said boldly that since they (the Jews) had judged themselves unworthy of everlasting life they would turn to the gentiles, according to the prophecy in Isa. xlix, 6, a word which primarily refers to the Messiah, but which all true representatives of the Lord can appreciate as His witnesses. The gentiles rejoiced to hear the message. The word of the Lord was published throughout all that region, and many believed and were filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost notwithstanding the persecution by the Jews (including some devout and honorable women and the chief men of the city), which expelled Paul and Barnabas from the city.

Let no one stumble over the saying "as many as were ordained to eternal life" (verse 48). There are to my mind two great truths which we must ever hold fast as foundation truths—"God is love," "The Lord is not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance" (I John iv, 8-10; II Pet. iii, 9). With the first put such texts as John iii, 16; Rom. v, 8, and with the last such as I Tim. ii, 2, 4; Tit. ii, 11, margin. Now, being sure on these two points and considering that God has an eternal purpose which He has purposed in Christ Jesus and which He is working out to a glorious consummation, it is difficult to believe that He who declareth the end from the beginning foresaw from all eternity who would form the body of Christ, the church, at the same time making the offer honestly to all with the assurance, "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out" (John vi, 37). When the Holy Spirit sent these men on this tour He knew just what they were to meet at each place and who would believe the glad tidings and who would reject the message. Success as men count success is not everything. But to know and do and live in the will of God and glorify Him—that is everything. To us as well as to these two it is a privilege to be despised and rejected and spoken against for Jesus' sake.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning May 9, 1909.

By REV. S. H. DOYLE.

Topic—"Pilgrim's Progress" series.—IV. The house of the Interpreter.—Ecl. xii, 9-14; Jas. i, 19-23.

When Christian left Goodwill and started again upon his journey he soon came to the house of Interpreter, to which he had been directed. Interpreter welcomed him and took him into a private room, and there by various methods he pointed out to him the things necessary for him to know upon his journey and also interpreted them for him. Knowledge is absolutely necessary to advancement in the Christian life. Peter, the apostle, not only commanded us to "grow in grace," but also "in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ." Increased grace often adds to our knowledge, and knowledge assists us in growing in grace.

1. Interpreter showed Christian in another room the picture "of a very grave person hung up against the wall. He had eyes lifted up to heaven, the best books in his hands. * * * He stood as if he pleaded with men, and a crown of gold did hang over his head." This picture represented the Holy Ghost, and Interpreter explained to Christian that his work was to know and guide the Master's people through life and was their only true guide. And we may ask, Is the Holy Spirit in our hearts, and does He lead us, or are we following false teachers?

2. Interpreter led Christian into a very large, dusty parlor. A man swept it, and the dust almost choked Christian. Then Interpreter had water sprinkled on the floor, and the dust was absent. The parlor signified the heart of a sinful man. The dust represented original sin and other defilements. The law swept first and then the gospel. The law made man to see sin, but could not remove sin from him. But the gospel cleanseth from sin and makes the heart sweet and pure. Many hearts are still dusty. Men trust in personal righteousness, and the heart is not cleansed by divine grace. But this is a false way of seeking salvation and sanctification. Only God's Spirit can cleanse and purify the human heart.

3. Interpreter introduced Christian into a little room, where sat two children, named Passion and Patience. Passion could not wait; Patience could. Passion symbolizes the man who ignores eternity and lives only for time. Patience the man who serves God in this life and lays up treasures in heaven. He is able and willing to wait until God crowns him.

4. Interpreter led Christian to a place where a fire burned fiercely against a wall. One stood by pouring water upon it, but the more water the higher the flame became. The fire, explained Interpreter, is the grace of God in the heart. Satan poured on the water, but his efforts to decrease or destroy divine grace only increased it, which is true, as God is superior to Satan.

5. Interpreter showed Christian a man in an iron cage. This man had once been on the road to heaven, had thought that he was a Christian, but had fallen back, proving that he had never been truly converted, and had so frequently repelled the invitations of the Spirit that he had grieved the Spirit away and was hopeless! "Grieve not the Spirit of God," for "the Spirit will not always strive with men."

These are not all of the things which Interpreter explained to Christian, but they are sufficient to teach us the great importance of knowledge in our religious life. Nor has God neglected the possibility of our Christian education. He has given us His own word as our text book. The Holy Spirit will unfold its meaning if we study it faithfully. God has also given us human teachers—ministers, Sabbath school teachers, Christian parents. The supreme place to learn is in the church of Christ. Here are trained men, educated men, whose life business is to study the word. Be faithful in the house of God, "be swift to hear," and you will gain in grace and knowledge.

PRESIDENT JOINS IN HONOR TO LONGFELLOW

Statue of Poet Dedicated in Washington.

Washington, May 7.—After years of effort by admirers of the poet Longfellow to honor his memory fittingly in the capital of the country which he loved a statue of the famous writer was unveiled and dedicated here today. The statue stands in the little public reservation at the corner of Connecticut avenue and M street.

President Taft participated in the dedication exercises, over which Chief Justice Fuller, who is president of the Longfellow National Memorial association, presided. Other speakers were General A. W. Greely, Hamilton Wright Mable and Brainard H. Warner. Several members of the Longfellow family attended the ceremony, and music was furnished by the Marine band.

The statue is the result of twelve years of work by the association. The sculptor, William Couper, has represented the poet seated, with his right hand raised to his head. His left hand, dropping at his side, holds a book, and there is another book under the left arm. The figure is clad in academic robes. The cost of the monument was $25,000, made up mainly of small contributions by admirers of the poet and his work. Congress appropriated $4,000 for a pedestal for the monument and authorized its location in a public square of the capital.

He was arrested in St. Louis and returned to Hamilton county where he was tried and convicted but the court was reversed by the supreme court. He was released, but arrested at once on a warrant from this county charging wife desertion. He gave bond, through the assistance of his wife, who had forgiven him and refused to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney insists that Richey will be

SOCIETY NEWS

Harry Boyd delightfully entertained a number of his friends last night in his suite of rooms over the bowling alley with a three-course supper. The affair was purely "stagg" as was the elaborate spread set before the guests.

The Kenton Daily Democrat has the following to say of the marriage of Miss Alberta Brecheisen, who is a niece of J. H. Brecheisen of North Perkins street: "One of the prettiest home weddings in this city for several years was that at the Brecheisen home in North Market street, this morning, when Miss Alberta, the charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Brecheisen, was united in marriage to Mr. William J. Schilling of Portsmouth, Ohio. The ceremony was simple, but beautiful, the ring service being used. Rev. T. W. Pinkerton of the Church of Christ officiated."
